

Midwest Zebrafish Meeting

JUNE 24-26, 2026

We are pleased to announce sponsorships now are available for the Midwest Zebrafish Meeting, which will be held June 24-26, 2026, at Van Andel Institute in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

This biennial meeting highlights research that employs zebrafish models across a wide range of fields, including developmental biology, cellular biology, cancer, regeneration, genetics, biochemistry, drug development, and more. We expect approximately 200 students, postdocs and principal investigators from around the Midwest to attend.

We have several sponsorship opportunities available.
